

⚡ The People's Common Law Rules ⚖️

In the Lawful Realm of Living Men and Women

- No one can be above the LAW,
 - as all are equal
 - as all are one.
 - What one can do, all can do.
- No one can impose their Will upon another,
 - without full disclosure* to know expected outcomes
 - and wilful consent without coercion to suspend one's Rights.
- No one should cause harm to another,
 - and when harm is caused,
 - remedy, as soon as possible.
 - Take responsibility, for your inaction and actions.
- Always keep 'the Peace',
 - remain calm, lawful, in honour, truthful and
 - respectful in all dealings.
As emotions can cloud judgement and impair clarity of mind.
- Know of where your 'Rights' end and
 - where another's Rights begin.
 - As whomever alleges, must prove the sins,
 - of Harms and Wrongs done to another,
 - with Facts and Testaments from living witnesses and not by machines alone.
- All have In-a-lien-able 'Rights' to: exist,
 - to thrive, to know*, to speak, and enjoy without imposing upon another,
 - to defend themselves, family and 'the Peace'.
- Anyone may do anything, only bound by:
 - 'Natural Law', and
 - these 'simple rules'.
 - To embrace the 'Light' and edify the 'Dark'.

These 'Living Lawful Rules' are 'self evident' to any 'Sentient Being' in tune with the Cosmos, through experience and observation of 'Light and Dark', 'Right and Wrong', 'Trust and Betrayal'; that all are afforded remedy from those that transgress or trespass. The Lawful Realm is Reality, Dominion of the Living and considered superior to the Legal Realm, which refers to constructs of the mind, as fictitious, abstract, administrative entities to organise or reflect but should not be consider Reality.
